

Jesus' teaching about mustard seed faith is a wakeup call, especially in regards to the generations attending worship and faith formation. Gathering God's people together includes five generations every week. From the elders of our congregation who give time, experience, wisdom, love, perspective and patience. To our children who give wonder, energy, innocence, honesty, curiosity and joy.

As we gather together each week as a community let us remember that no matter our age, our approach to faith, our ideas about how this or that ought to be done, gathering together forms our faith. It is not so much what you know, how much knowledge you have about the Bible, what you have memorized or what you can recite. Our faith is knowing how good God is and how much God for us! All five generations know that, and can find common ground for sharing our faith with others.

On Sunday, we have an opportunity to share our faith with our neighbors as we gather for a Fun Fall Festival on the east lawn. Join us for conversation, meet our neighbors, enjoy an ice cream treat. See you there!
